Sen. Ryan deGraffenried was named best legislator in the entire country last year by a group representing many small businesses across the United States. The national retail organization said it chose Sen. deGraffenried as the most outstanding legislator in the nation because of his record of:

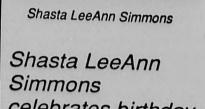

- Support for programs that promote the free enterprise system
- His commitment to the highest standards of personal and public conduct Because he is a role model, serving as a citizen-legislator with a record of active leadership in civic and community affairs

Twice, Sen. deGraffenried has received the Public Service Award given by a distinguished panel of Alabama citizens for his accomplishments in the State Senate. He has been elected to the Senior Citizens Hall of Fame for the work he has done to promote and protect the interests of this deserving group of Alabama citizens. He also received the Award of Honor from the Alabama Wildlife Federation for his commitment to and support of conservation issues in by Beverly Flowers I have been a member of various livestock judging teams and have participated in contests from the school to the national level. The experiences I have gained from this have been extremely beneficial. I have learned how to graciously accept defeat, but also how to learn from that defeat and rise to the top as the youngest team ever to win the state contest. In the past five years I have been asked numerous times, just exactly what is livestock judging, so I am going to answer that question.

Livestock Judging is the process of valuating livestock based on character traits of the animal such as muscling, Muscling simply is the amount of muscle an animal appears to have at the time of the contest. Muscling is determined by studying several body parts of the animal, watching the animal walk. and the width of the animal's stance. Muscling is used in both market and breeding animal contests.

Melissa has been wanting to get her uniform dirty all season and has kidded about sliding, but last week she got her uniform dirty in a way I'm sure she'll never forget. With two outs and a runner on third, she fielded a grounder between the plate and the pitcher's rubber, and knowing she couldn't turn and throw out the batter, she ran home in an attempt to tag out the runner from third. Both players arrived near the plate at the same time and Melissa dove to make the tag, but tripped the runner while making the tag, and both hit the ground with a thud. Melissa's arm was bleeding and she had dirt covering her face and uniform, but she held on to the ball and saved her team a run, and batted second the very next inning. I'm sure Melissa was hurt by the collision; however, she came through like a champ and finally getting her uniform dirty!

The losses in the playoffs hurt the Lady Tigers; however, with only two seniors on the team, Elba's players no doubt learned a lesson in the losses and should put the lesson to good use next season as they once again will enter the season as one of the favorites to make a run at a state title. ON THE GRILL, ONCE OVER LIGHTLY

Maybe it's just the expansion of news coverage, but it seems like bad league games: news in sports happens almost daily. Forget pro and college sports and the constant problems they face, I'm referring to high school athletics and the recent alarming news over the conduct of two coaches right here in Alabama. A coach at Trinity High School, in Montgomery, resigned after admitting to biting a student on the nose, and later said the student had "gotten under his skin" and then tried to blame the actions on some medication he was taking. What ever happened to paddling? Even more disturbing was the news that a coach at Shades Valley had been suspended after a student at Oak Grove, the school at which the coach had been employed last year, accused the coach of sodomy. Everyone is innocent until proven guilty, and I'm sure the accused coach will have his chance to answer the charge; however, these two incidents are more than enough to the Dodgers, while Josh Dawkins the Sox. A lot of area sports fans have always complained that junior colleges and colleges in the area seem to snub local athletes and sign kids from as far away as possible. That may be true, but the area schools don't hold a candle to Alabama, Alabama A & M and Jacksonville University! Alabama has 18 foreign athletes on its track team, while at A&M eight members of the soccer team are from Nigeria, and at Jacksonville there are 11 foreigners on the men's and women's tennis teams. One player at Jacksonville is from Sri Lanka and his name is Aasiri Iddamalgoda. I bet led the Astros. he doesn't have his name on the chest of his letter jacket.

You elected me Probate Judge 12 years ago and I promised you progressive leadership. I have made good on my promise --

I have given each of you the service and respect you deserve as citizens of Coffee County and you have felt free to call on me at any time of the day or night. We have made a good team.

Not only have I worked hard during office hours but I have helped you solve your problems in the middle of the night, or weekends and

I have gladly listened to your suggestions and have implemented them whenever possible to improve county

during holidays, including Thanksgiving and Christmas

I knew you and your cities, towns and communities when I ran for election six years ago - I still know you and you have seen me involved in activities all over the county for the last 12 years - not just at election time. We are a united, progressive county. I am a graduate of the University of Alabama Law for Probate Judges, taught by law professors, probate experts and estate advisors. This intensive school on Probate Court matters lasted for 36 months. I did this to serve you better. Participation was entirely voluntary.

You elected me to serve you and I have. I have worked hard and I have done a good job.

I want to continue to be your Probate Judge and ask for your VOTE and SUPPORT on June 7, 1994. We'll continue to look to the future together.

Women have played an important role in the defense of our Nation. Many from Coffee County have served on active military duty, and will be honored Saturday as we unveil a special plaque bearing their names. Please come show your appreciation to those who have served, and join us in remembering those men and women who gave their lives defending the freedom we all enjoy.

For more information, call David Hobbs at National Security Insurance in Elba at 897-2273 Ext. 214.

Pd. Pol. Adv. by Kirk Donaldson, Rt. 1, Enterprise, AL

For Six Generations, The Ellis Family Has Called The Wiregrass Home.

"My roots run deep in the fertile soil of the Wiregrass.

Six generations ago, my great-great grandfather settled here, and began to work the land in Dale County. My great grandfather brought the family to Coffee County, and together they raised peanuts and whatever the land would bring forth.

I'm proud to be a son of this soil. I'm grateful that my mother and father raised me on the values of this land-faith in God, common sense, and the idea that one should claim what one is due--no more, and no less.

These values are what I have believed my whole life. That's why I'll be a Senator who will fight for the Wiregrass, and one who will shine the light of truth on what the legislature is doing right, and doing wrong.

You have my word on it.
